HEALTHY PASTORS – PASTORAL LEADERSHIP MINISTRIES

The prayer vigil has been postponed from Thursday, October 2 to November. Once the new date is known, you will be updated. Thank you to all who contacted us about the vigil.

HEALTHY CHURCHES – CONGREGATIONAL LIFE MINISTRIES

“THE NINETY AND NINE” A Choral Performance on the Lives of Dwight Moody & Ira Sankey.

From the Chicago Fire of 1871 to their thrilling meetings in America and Great Britain, the evangelistic team of Moody and Sankey preached and sang the Gospel of Christ. This musical captures the preaching of Moody and the stirring music of Sankey. Together, they proclaimed the message of salvation, “For the Lord brings back his own.”

“The Ninety and Nine,” The Lives of Dwight L. Moody and Ira Sankey In Story and Song will be presented by the adult choir of Phillips Memorial Baptist Church under the direction of Dr. Martha Sobaje. David Barber and Sally Riley will narrate this special musical program.

The program takes place this Sunday, September 28 at 10 a.m. Phillips Memorial Baptist Church, 565 Pontiac Avenue, Cranston. Admission is free; however, a freewill offering will be taken. For information on the musical, please contact Dr. Martha Sobaje at 401-467-3300.

WHOLE GOSPEL – SOCIAL WITNESS MINISTRIES

Gulf Coast--More than 1 million people remain displaced along and near the Texas Gulf Coast. In Houston, the nation’s fourth largest city, many homes and businesses remain without power. There and in other affected cities and towns, many people are waiting in line for hours at supply distribution centers to receive food, water and ice.

CWS Emergency Response Specialists are in Louisiana and Texas this week to meet with partners and provide CWS Kits, Blankets, training and emergency response grants to local organizations focused on meeting the needs of the most vulnerable individuals and families.

FOR INFORMATION ON HOW TO MAKE THE KITS AND WHERE TO SEND THEM, VISIT WWW.CHURCHWORLDSERVICE.ORG/KITS.

Thank you for your prayers and support for the life-sustaining work of Church World Service. Contributions may be sent through your church or directly to Church World Service, P.O.
