American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

Preamble

- We, the American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island,
- Committed to the prayerful faith that all persons are dependent upon God, the Giver and Sustainer and Redeemer of life, and that we may most please God by accepting Jesus Christ as Lord and conforming our lives to His Spirit and way; and
 - Believing that though each congregation of believers is a true church, a community of faith, our larger life as American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island is also a form of expression of the church. It partakes of churchly character and performs churchly functions, and is thus an agency for the mediating of divine grace, for the enabling of the Holy Spirit to work, and for preaching of the Gospel among all people; and
 - Having freely associated ourselves together as local congregations for the more perfect obedience to Christ's command and the carrying out of His mission in the world, we do adopt this Constitution as descriptive of the way in which we order our common life as American Baptist churches in Rhode Island.

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of the Organization shall be American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island (hereafter may be identified as ABCORI). It is an organization incorporated in the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations and recognized under section 501 (c) (3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as exempt from taxes being a non-profit religious organization.

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE

The American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island is an expression of the universal Church of Christ. As a creation of local congregations of Christian believers, it becomes an extension of their life, their work and their witness in and to the world. The American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island shall establish, maintain and assist American Baptist churches in the state. It shall relate its local congregations to each other, the American Baptist Churches in the USA (hereafter may be identified as ABC-USA) and to other Baptist bodies such as the Baptist World Alliance. It also shall promote the cooperation of Baptists in Rhode Island with other Christian believers, looking toward a greater unity in Christ's Body, the Church.

ARTICLE III - POLITY

Ultimate authority for the American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island shall reside with the voting delegates of its constituent members and voting members of the Board of Ministries assembled at the Annual or any Special Meeting.

ARTICLE IV - MEMBERSHIP

SECTION A. CONSTITUENT MEMBERS

1. The associating churches of ABCORI shall be deemed constituent members of the corporation.
2. An associating church shall be an American Baptist Church which has agreed to become a constituent member of the corporation and which has been accepted for such membership at an Annual Meeting of the American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island or its Board of Ministries. The nature of the mutual responsibilities between ABCORI and its covenanting churches is set forth in the document "The American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island, A Covenant of Relationships."
3. An associating congregation may be dually aligned with another Christian denomination or Baptist convention.

SECTION B. CHURCH DELEGATES

Each constituent member church shall be entitled to representation at the Annual or Special Meetings of the American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island by its pastor(s) and two (2) delegates for the first fifty (50) resident members (as reported annually to the office of the American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island), plus one delegate for each additional fifty (50) members, or the major portion thereof. Each pastor and delegate shall be entitled to one vote. Delegates shall be appointed by the member church.

ARTICLE V - ANNUAL AND SPECIAL MEETINGS

SECTION A. ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual Meeting of the American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island shall include but not be limited to: establishing ministry priorities; acting on the report of the Recruitment Committee; receiving and acting on a report of the financial status; and any other appropriate business to come before the delegates.

1. The Annual Meeting of the American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island shall be held between March 1 and May 31 of each year at such date as shall be determined by the Board of Ministries. The date and location of the Annual Meeting shall be determined by the Board of Ministries at least one year in advance.
2. A quorum for transaction of business shall consist of one or more delegates representing at least one-third (1/3) of constituent members. Less than this number may adjourn a meeting and a notice of such adjournment shall be sent in the same manner as notice of meetings.
3. The Annual Meeting may be recessed or rescheduled by the Board of Ministries in case of emergency. The Board of Ministries shall have authority to transact business until such time as it is possible to call an Annual Meeting which it must do within 60 days.

SECTION B. SPECIAL MEETINGS

1. A special meeting of American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island shall be called by the President whenever requested by the Board of Ministries or by the written request of ten (10) constituent member churches. The call shall state the time, place and purpose of the meeting.
2. A quorum shall be the same as required for an Annual Meeting.

SECTION C. NOTICE OF MEETINGS

Notice of annual or special meetings of ABCORI shall be sent by mail by the Secretary to each constituent member church at least two weeks prior to the day of the meeting.

ARTICLE VI - OFFICERS, THEIR ELECTION AND DUTIES

SECTION A. ENUMERATION

The officers of the American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island shall be a President, Vice President, Secretary (who shall be the Executive Minister), Clerk, and Treasurer. All officers shall be members in good standing of an ABCORI church.

SECTION B. ELECTION AND TERM OF OFFICE

1. Other than the Secretary, the officers shall be elected at the Annual Meeting of the American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island, take office at the end of the adjournment of the meeting at which they are installed and shall serve their complete term(s) or until their successors are installed.
2. A vacancy in any office shall be filled by election by the Board of Ministries for the unexpired term of such office upon recommendation of the Recruitment Committee unless stated elsewhere in these By-laws.
3. The President and Vice President shall be eligible to serve for one two year term. No person shall be eligible for re-election to the same office until three years have elapsed from the completion of a prior term in that office.
4. The Clerk and Treasurer shall each be eligible to serve for a maximum of three consecutive two year terms in the same office, and shall not be eligible for re-election to the same office until three years have elapsed from the completion of a prior term in that office.

SECTION C. PRESIDENT

The President shall preside at all meetings of the American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island and the Board of Ministries and shall be a member ex-officio of all Ministry Teams, the Operations Team, and all Committees. The President or Treasurer, when authorized by the Board of Ministries, shall execute on behalf of the American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island all deeds, mortgages, transfers and discharges of mortgages and assign all securities for transfer or sale. The President shall perform such other duties as are set forth elsewhere in these By-laws, including appointing:

1. The Chair and at large members of an Executive Staff Search Committee
2. The Chair of the Standing Committee on Ordained Ministry
3. The Chair of the Operations Team
4. Committees and task forces to carry out the work of the Board of Ministries
5. The By-law and Constitution Review Committee (every five years)

SECTION D. VICE PRESIDENT

In the absence or disability of the President, the Vice President shall perform the duties of the President. If a President is not able to complete his/her term, the Vice President shall become President until the next Annual Meeting Installation. The Vice President shall then be eligible to serve another full term as President. A Vice President shall then be elected by the Board of Ministries according to the process in Article VI, Section B2. This person shall serve until the next Annual Meeting Installation, and be eligible for another full term. The Vice President shall be a member ex-officio of the Operations Team.

SECTION E. SECRETARY

The Executive Minister shall serve as the Secretary of the corporation, as indicated in the covenant of relationships with ABC-USA. This is a non-voting position on the Board of Ministries. The Secretary in cooperation with the clerk shall maintain copies of all ABCORI policies.

SECTION F. CLERK

The Clerk shall be responsible for recording minutes of all ABCORI meetings and preserving them at the offices of ABCORI. The Clerk shall send copies of the minutes to the Baptist Heritage Center and any other affiliated organizations that request them. The Clerk shall also maintain copies of all ABCORI policies in cooperation with the Secretary. In the event the Clerk is unable to complete his/her term, an elected person shall be considered to have served a full term if serving more than half of the unexpired term.

SECTION G. TREASURER

The Treasurer shall have responsibility for all monies, books and accounts, securities, contracts, and financial papers of the American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island. Policies regarding finances and the reporting of finances shall be established by the Board of Ministries and made public. The Treasurer or President, when authorized by the Board of Ministries, shall execute on behalf of the American Baptist Churches of Rhode Island all deeds, mortgages, transfers and discharges of mortgages and assign all securities for transfer or sale. In the event the Treasurer is unable to complete his/her term, an elected person shall be considered to have served a full term if serving more than half of the unexpired term.

1. The Treasurer shall be a member of the Operations Team and the Baptist Fund of Rhode Island.
2. The Treasurer shall be bonded for the faithful discharge of duties in such sum and with such sureties as the Board of Ministries may require and approve.

ARTICLE VII – STAFF

SECTION A. EXECUTIVE STAFF

The executive staff shall be the Executive Minister and such others as from time to time shall be deemed necessary by the Board of Ministries for the accomplishment of ABCORI's mission. Executive staff shall be American Baptists.
